Case Analysis Report

Problem Description

On 4 September 2026 I saw a Facebook ad for "ProfitEdge Capital" promising guaranteed 8% weekly returns, claiming to be SECP registered. I contacted their manager "Zain" on WhatsApp, who told me it was 100% safe and that I could withdraw anytime.

Between 8 September and 10 October 2026 I transferred a total of Rs. 2,100,000 by bank transfer in four payments, to three different account titles (ProfitEdge Capital, Ali Enterprises, M. Usman Traders). Their dashboard showed my balance growing to Rs. 3,894,000.

On 18 October 2026 I tried to withdraw. The platform blocked it and demanded a "15% government tax" of Rs. 584,100 first. This was never mentioned before. On 22 October the manager threatened to freeze my account if I did not pay, and then blocked me.

I checked and found no company registration record for ProfitEdge Capital, and the website domain was registered only 24 days before they contacted me. On 23 October I reported the fraud to my bank and got a reference number. I want to recover my money and take legal action. What should I do?

Category

Investment fraud

Legal Readiness Score

67% - Moderate Preparation

Relevant Authorities

- Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan
- Federal Investigation Agency Cyber Crime Wing
- Police (Local)

Missing Evidences

- Bank complaint reference
- Police FIR copy

Suggestions

- File FIR at nearest police station with all evidence.
- Submit complaint to SECP through its online portal, attaching screenshots and bank statements.
- Lodge cyber-crime complaint with FIA Cyber Crime Wing, providing WhatsApp chats and transaction details.
- Request bank to initiate chargeback or recall of funds and consider filing a civil suit for recovery.